

Corptax Offers the Most Cost Effective Training Package in the Industry

It is more important than ever for your team to get the training that enables them to be more efficient and do more with less. Corptax now offers individual Online Training subscriptions that may save you up to 75% - and the timing couldn't be better. For a one-time fee, any team member may subscribe to our Online Training program. Each individual subscriber gets unlimited access to our entire Online Training curriculum. And the savings are significant! If an individual subscriber completes courses to cover his or her annual 40-CPE credit hour requirement, they can save as much as 75% depending upon the courses taken.

Our Online Training curriculum offers 45 different sessions for a total of 80-hours in meaningful CPE-credit through sessions covering:

- Corptax[®] U.S. Compliance
- Corptax[®] International Compliance
- Corptax[®] Provision
- CorpSales[®]

You also have access to new 2012 Online Training sessions as they become available. You can view a full listing of the Online Training options in the Course Catalog in the University section of corptax.com. Individual subscriptions are required for each of your employees who want to participate in the program. The subscriptions are not transferrable and are non-refundable.

Fee

There is a one-time fee covering 2012 attendance for one individual. Each student must have his or her own subscription to participate.
