

Ever had these thoughts?

Wouldn't it be great to reduce the time and errors that occur during our data collection and gathering processes...

My job would be SO MUCH EASIER if all the data I need for reporting was in one place—especially when I'm asked to do time sensitive analysis and reporting...

Who changed my numbers on this spreadsheet?
Someone's in trouble...

This could take two minutes using Excel if I could only get to the data in my system...

I'm going to be here all night verifying this data
—I hope I remembered to record Lost...
